

Directions to All Saints Church, Broseley

Broseley is in the heart of rural Shropshire, so public transport links on a Sunday are not good. The nearest railway station is Telford Central, served by the Wolverhampton-Shrewsbury service. From Birmingham, change at Wolverhampton, and I'd suggest looking at www.thetrainline.com for times. Buses 9 and 99 run from Telford bus station (5 minutes walk from the railway station), but don't bank on finding one on Sunday. A taxi may be more reliable.

By road, approach using the B4373 from Bridgnorth, or take the M54 towards Telford, leave the motorway following signs to Ironbridge and take the B4373 from there. The B4376 leads to Broseley from Much Wenlock as well.

All Saints Church is in Church Street (surprisingly) - turn left from Avenue Rd (ignore the first left towards the town centre) if approaching from Bridgnorth, or right from Ironbridge Rd. The church is almost immediately on your right. Owners of larger instruments may park within the church grounds, others should park on-street. Please do your best not to inconvenience others by inconsiderate parking.

If all else fails, Broseley is not very big, and a local person will no doubt help you if you look lost. Or you can ask a policeman.
